When I was in Milwaukee Covering the 2020 NBA Playoffs/Finals

At some point on my five year GFENTSports journey rental companies stop renting to me, so I started using taxi drivers; riding buses; taking trains to get to the venues...

Every city was the same... There was always some type of issue.. But nevertheless, I would meet some beautiful people on this five year journey and particularly during these NBA Playoffs...

It became obvious to me that within this NBA media space, I was recognized and was now a target... But I had to do the work; this was necessary to endure in order to lay the foundation for GFENTSports to become a legitimate sports entity recognized by the NBA covering the action on a consistent and regular basis...

I usually like to get to the games a day earlier... for various reasons... I'd had so many bad experiences so to give myself time before and after games; just in case something happened, I will show up early at the event or venue... Sometime it worked and most times I wasn't ready for what was coming at me. My God! Some examples; I'd pay for parking in advance only to find out they didn't have a record of it... Or the car rental didn't have any available cars... Sometimes I'd walk for miles as I did in Atlanta for the Hawks vs. Bucks playoff games...

Sometimes my virtual tickets wouldn't work when I show up at the game... So, I Would have to go to Will Call... One game at Indiana Pacers vs LA Lakers I didn't get in until the second half...

The most disappointing is when I'd experienced these types of bad experiences while attending Laker games... I was actually threatened by Laker's Executive Mr. Sean Patterson to be thrown out of the arena if I didn't stop filming during a game at the Staples Center... Guess what; I'd request a media pass from him the day before. The exact same thing would happen in Milwaukee after I requested a media pass from a Bucks Executive Mr. Baun

Arriving at the arena for the 7th game; there was so many people in the Beer/Deer District... I would meet and interview some pretty cool people while in the city prior to the games...

I would watch and hear my phone being attacked by radiation from the beaming coming from above me... I was getting beamed so much my phone started buzzing... I had been getting beamed in every city & arena including Los Angeles...

Game 7 Giannis would get his ring I would miss very important history. GFENTsports would miss out on vital historical coverage... As important as this moment time; our 1st Finals; are you kidding me! I was told by the Milwaukee Bucks security to remove my protective shield or risk being escorted off of the private property by the Milwaukee police.

I would ask for a refund for my $3000 ticket and headed back to Los Angeles...

I was going back and forth between Phoenix and Milwaukee In Phoenix I would be man-handled by Sun's security and harassed/bullied by Phoenix Police... Milwaukee brass was seated directly in front of me while at what might have been game 2 or 3 against the Suns...

Part 2

A Suns representative came over to me and said, “no filming” and I am looking at all of the orange shirt wearing fans with their cell phones; just as free as any bird God made...

I was harassed at the hotels; given old fries at Dan Marlee’s restaurant... It was a nightmare...
